

Some of these URLs are too long to include:
Find direct links at guante.info/ActionZine resources at issuu.com/projectnia other young organizers! And more

Young organizers sharing wisdom with

MISSIVES ACROSS TIME AND SPACE

LETTERS TO YOUNG ORGANIZERS: LOVING

guante.ghost.io

on where we might take that energy:

Fired up after a big rally? A few thoughts

BIG MARCH

WHAT'S NEXT? THINGS TO DO AFTER A

and inspired by Frontline Medics' list.

Marame Kaba's gdoc list, adapted from

PROTESTING OR VOTING

A BIG LIST OF ACTIONS THAT ARE NOT

- Join a library board, neighborhood group, mutual aid collective, etc.

- Organize a fundraiser for a local org.

- Volunteer as (or get trained to be) a

- clinic escort, rapid response legal

- witness, crisis center advocate, etc.

- Amplify activist calls-to-action using

- art, zines, social media, etc.

- Contact your reps (using a tool like

- Scalls.org) to influence them.

- Explore ways to bring "the work" to

- where you already are: career, school,

- worship, hobbies, and beyond.

-

DisabilityVisibilityProject.com have to show up the same way - via

We all have to show up, but we don't all

BEYOND THE STREETS

26 WAYS TO BE IN THE STRUGGLE,

& more at SproutDistro.com

YOU CAN DO TO COUNTER FASCISM

DON'T JUST DO NOTHING - 20 THINGS

community - millionexperiments.com to explore their interests, capacity, and project, featuring a template for people

A zine from the One Million Experiments

MAKING AN ACTIVISM/ORGANIZING PLAN

AND POSSIBLE EXAMPLES OF ACTION

SETBACKS AND HOW TO DEAL WITH THEM

MN-SPECIFIC LINKS

If you're here, great. If you're not, find or create similar resources in your area.

MAD? SAD? MOTIVATED? 60+ MN ORGS

WORKING TO MAKE THE NEXT 4 YEARS

[AND THEN SOME] SUCK LESS.

"From LGBTQ+ advocacy to environmental justice to reproductive rights and beyond, these groups offer productive ways to fight for a better future."

RackeetMN.com

WTF IS ORGANIZING? SERIES VIA

TAKEACTION MINNESOTA

A three-part series of posts sharing some organizing basics + specific ways people can plug in here in MN.

Instagram.com/TakeActionMN

- Audre Lorde

piece of that chain."

your life is an absolutely vital with you, but what you do with

with you, and it will not end children. Change did not begin against you, and me, and our

to use it, it will be used,

is real. And if you do not learn

"Your power is relative, but it community or interests.

remix to make more relevant to your free to share, make copies, and/or something useful to offer. Please feel

These are all resources that I think have

KEEP GOING.

Find an extended version of this resource, the two zines mentioned below, and resources on making your own zines:

GUANTE.INFO/ZINES

OF WHAT FUTURE ARE THESE THE WILD, EARLY DAYS?

A more in-depth version of this zine, full of resources related to "finding your political home" and your role in it.

HOPE DOES NOT GLIMMER: IT BURNS

A zine sharing some favorite quotes and perspectives on how we might cultivate HOPE in times of crisis and uncertainty.

So we need to commit. To show up.

To collaborate. To find our "political homes." To experiment. To try.

and-only answer right now. And nobody fix everything. Nobody has the one-map, no big red button we can press to

Because there is no perfect guide, no advice, and no definitive answer.

This zine shares some ideas, but no does that mean? What does it look like?

offers the best path forward- but what

We might know that collective action scared, or just adrift right now.

it is is not natural to feel overwhelmed,

the world and cares about other people,

If you're someone who pays attention to

I DIDN'T BELIEVE IN THE FIGHT—

THE FIGHT

MADE ME A

BELIEVER

FOR PEOPLE WHO WANT TO TAKE ACTION

guante.info/ActionZine